Mark Howard Wacky Waiter

Mark Howard (The Wacky Waiter) won a scholarship to the Italia Conti Stage School where he studied acting, ballet, jazz, tap dancing and singing. Following this he then danced with the famous Second Generation group over a period of four years. Mark has had a very successful career 'treading the boards'.

Mark has appeared in five musicals in the west end, including performing in The Palladium. He has also performed at 'The Laurence Olivier Awards', on 'Top of The Pops', featured in commercials, lots of touring shows, many pantomimes and numerous summer shows. Mark is now an established entertainer as 'The Wacky Waiter'. With 20 years of experience, Mark brings all his talents to the floor to provide you with a unique evening of dance, laughter and surprise.

Mark provides a complete night of hilarious and unique entertainment. He appears, at first, to be a normal waiter, fitting in with those that you have at your function. As pre-dinner drinks are underway, slowly your guests will start to realise, that there is something quite odd about this waiter, as he falls over and bemuses guests whilst serving drinks with a shaky hand (just some of Mark's hilarious antics!). As the evening progresses, guests suddenly realise that Mark is more than just a waiter.

His talents as an entertainer shine through when he starts to amuse guests with his witty comedy sketches, as well as getting guest participation in some of his dance routines. The night will be filled with laughter as you and your guests savour the talents of Mark.

Mark has performed for the following celebrities: Chris Tarrant, Norman Wisdom, Eric Sykes, Ken Dodd, Liz Hurley, HRH Prince Michael of Kent, HRH Princess Anne, Stirling Moss OBE, Ian Wright, Jeremy Beadle, James Last, Don MacLean, Natasha Kaplinski, Lee Evans & And Many More
