

Ice Breakers and Energisers

Ice Breakers

Break down barriers, invigorate your team and get them interacting. Our short and snappy ice breaker activities and games are ideal at the beginning or during a conference/ meeting to set the tone of your event.

HUMAN BINGO

The task is to find people in the room who can match the criteria on the bingo card. Participants must liaise amongst themselves to find people who have the specified credentials. The requirements are written specifically to pre-empt a conversation, so guests can learn new and interesting things about their colleagues. Once a match is found, they need to sign the bingo card. No one can sign the same card twice, so participants will need to speak to as many people as possible to complete the task. A prize will be awarded to the first person to achieve a full house!
