

Dance It Out (Virtual)

Dance it out

With dancing being the latest craze over social media – we thought what better way of bringing your group together than with a signature Company “Dance it Out”?!

Led by our expert choreographer Matt, your team will be taken through a short, invigorating energizer followed by a session where you will learn your very own dance style routine.

This will (where possible) include movements that represent your company values, so that the dance really represents who you are as a Company. Then you film the result, send it back to us and we will create your own Video Dance Sensation!

Prepare to see your work colleagues having fun as never before! During this virtual team building event, we will have technical support on hand at all times to advise and help participants, with performance tips and guidance on how to send in your dance recordings. It’s all made incredibly easy.

Matt is an international dancer, choreographer and teacher. His credits include, The X-Factor, The Brit Awards, Chris Brown, Cheryl, One Direction, Mariah Carey, Conor Maynard, Burberry, Paco Rabanne, Spotify, Sky Sports, A League of Their Own, High School Musical and many more.
