WORKSHOP

One person and a microphone are all it takes to completely amaze your group.

Perfect as a conference icebreaker, energiser, or longer team-building experience, our expert beatbox artist will showcase a range of jaw-dropping sound effects and hypnotic drum-machine beats, demonstrating the incredible potential of the human voice.

Then it's your turn...Under the guidance of our professional beatbox coach, participants will learn the three fundamental sounds needed to create a strong rhythmic foundation before progressing to a variety of beatboxing techniques and well-known sound effects. Throughout this highly interactive and entertaining session, everyone will develop a new skill while adapting and personalising their own unique beatboxing style.

With plenty of laughter, creativity, and collaboration along the way, this experience encourages confidence, teamwork, and communication in a fun and memorable environment. To complete the experience and embrace the fresh, energetic vibe of the session, branded baseball caps or T-shirts can be provided to get everyone looking the part from the very beginning at an additional cost.
