DUNCAN WILLIAM

MIND-BLOWING, MODERN MAGIC

Duncan William has spent the last 15 years performing all over the world as a professional magician and mind-reader and is one of the pioneers of digital and iPad magic. He has taken these years of experience from performing at live events around the world and adapted them to the virtual setting, for a mind-blowing, interactive, online show.

This is not just a magic show performed over the internet but a bespoke show that has been created specifically to be performed online. It is 35-40 minutes of interactive magic and mind reading, which is perfect for parties, corporate events, award ceremonies, celebrations and get togethers. This show is fun, very interactive (if you want to take part), immersive and most of all unbelievable. Some routines involve a handful of participants, others the whole group.

Duncan will tell you the names of objects you are simply thinking of, reveal a travel guide to a holiday destination that the audience collectively decide on, make a series of unbelievable predictions and more! All guaranteed to leave your friends, family members and delegates laughing in amazement and talking about for weeks afterwards.

Duncan also offers customisation options for some or all of his online act, to keep in with your theme, brand or corporate identity. He can also include business messages, if you are booking for a corporate event.
