DIVERSITY

"Britain's Got Talent" Winners

Spurred on by the group's motto "Dream, Believe, Achieve", Diversity are a remarkable example of what can be accomplished with hard work, dedication and belief.

Forming in 2007, they quickly went on to become 'UK Dance Champions.' Since winning Britain's Got Talent in 2009, Diversity have gone from strength to strength. They have performed for Royalty, been the first act to perform outside No. 10 Downing Street for the Prime Minister, and danced at the closing ceremony of the Invictus Games in 2014. They have headlined at numerous festivals and have appeared on many TV shows, televised charity shows and award ceremonies.

Founder and creator Ashley Banjo has forged a career in his own right, as a presenter and judge on shows including 'Dancing on Ice', 'Got To Dance' and 'Dance, Dance, Dance.' Jordan Banjo is currently hosting 'The Greatest Dancer' on BBC 1, alongside Alesha Dixon.

Having toured the UK and Ireland extensively, Diversity have no fewer than 8 sold-out tours to their name, with another due at the end of 2019. They are also the only dance group to have sold-out the O2. With each tour, they evolve and innovate and most recently combined the world of Street Dance with that of the circus – to great acclaim.

All this experience, passion and raw energy will deliver you an event to remember. Using several genres of music, from classical to hip-hop, Diversity's inspirational and breath-taking routines will astound and excite your guests, leaving them wanting more.
