JIMMY TAMLEY VENTRILOQUIST

As one of the most sought after speciality acts in the country, Jimmy is mesmerizingly memorable. Well known for his incredible vocal skills and excellent comedy and characterisation, Jimmy's unique approach to the art of ventriloquism challenges the usual perception of his art.

A true professional, Jimmy adapts his performance to each audience, venue and client. With his reputation preceding him, he's tight lipped on how he does it (!), simply adding 'It is an act that speaks for itself.'

A star was born when, back in the 80s, Jimmy won all the national heats of the talent show New Faces. Winning the Grand Final, beating a certain Joe Pasquale into second place, led to a plethora of television and theatre performances. Going from strength to strength, Jimmy has worked with comedy greats such as Peter Kay, Bill Bailey, Lenny Henry and of course Joe Pasquale; and worked at many prestigious venues, including 10 Downing Street and The Imperial Hotel in Las Vegas.

His repertoire is jammed packed with comedy and character, and new characters are constantly added to the fold. His versatility, adaptability and constant refreshing of his act mean Jimmy continues to stay at the top of his game.
