Paul Burling

Comedian & Impressionist

With over 25 years of experience on the comedy circuit honing his act, Paul Burling is the consummate professional. Becoming one of the nation's favourite comedian-impressionist's, after winning his way to the final of 2010s Britain's Got Talent, his witty repertoire of current and classic TV personalities will have your guests mesmerised.

Performing at the top of his game, Paul has impressed audiences of all sizes, from regional theatres through to London's O2 and even Wembley.

Since 2010 he has travelled the country with Britain's Got Talent, appeared as a special guest in theatres with Joe Pasquale, and toured the UK as part of the show Talents of Britain alongside other big names from talent shows such as The Voice and the X Factor.

His quick wit and inoffensive humour has made him a regular on television, and even got him his own prime time show -It's Paul Burling –which was viewed by nearly 4 million people. He also made his film debut in 2013 with The Harry Hill Movie, and has been part of many pantomimes.

An experienced and talented voice over artist, Paul has worked for various national and local radio stations – including his beloved BBC Radio Bristol - using his uncanny impressions and impeccable timing to hilarious effect.

At home on any platform, Paul Burling is an act not to be missed.
