INTERNATIONAL HIP HOP DANCE CHAMPIONS

Plague are one of the most respected Street Dance acts around. Formed in 2000, the current team features up to 12 dancers under the direction of original member Brooke Milliner (star of Street Dance 3D movies). Known for their incredible choreography and inimitable skill, Plague have to be seen to be believed.

Offering a high impact, tightly choreographed group performance, they are an act that will energise, excite and inspire all that see it.

Having won numerous titles including UK Street Dance Champions, Plague headed to the USA for international recognition in 2005 and 2011. Both visits were a resounding success, and led Plague to be the first and only UK act to win the World Hip Hop Dance Championships, not once, but twice.

Plague have performed all over the world, most notably at the Beijing Olympics 2008, The Royal Variety Show and with Cirque du Soleil and Breakin Convention.
