Spice up your event and make it a 'Thriller' of a night with Signature's Michael Jackson and Bhangra tribute dance show. Breath-taking choreography, fantastic songs and Bollywood beats make it an act like no other.

Britain's Got Talent 2008 finalists Signature consist of two members Suleman Mirza & Madhu Singh. Meeting at a University talent contest in 2000, they combined their passions and started dancing together. Nearly 20 years on, they have performed throughout the world with their show – to rave reviews.

Universally recognised as the World's #1 Michael Jackson tribute artist, Suleman's act has been given the official stamp of approval by Jackson and his family. Meeting his hero in March 2009, when Jackson announced his "This Is It" tour, was an honour and a privilege. It was here that Michael Jackson said to Suleman that "I like what you do."

Madhu Singh is an energetic, dynamic, charismatic and unique performer, with a multitude of talents. Influenced by Bollywood heroes and Hollywood comedians, Madhu Singh has always had the desire to entertain millions.

Having worked with celebrity choreographer Lavelle Smith Junior (choreographer to Beyoncé and Michael Jackson) and with fans aged from 5 to 75 years old, Signature appeals to all. With over 50 million accumulated hits on YouTube, sell out tours, performances with A-list Bollywood Superstars, appearances on The Oprah Winfrey Show and performing at the 2012 London Olympics opening ceremony, they continue to go from strength to strength.
