With their South London charm, wacky sense of humour and amazing moves, Twist & Pulse - Ashley Glazebrook (aka Twist) and Glen Murphy (aka Pulse) are a dynamic duo who will astonish audiences of all ages.

Inspired by the music they use - from Hip Hop, Dubstep, Grime, Bashment, Soca, Reggae, Afro beats to Pop, R&B, Dancehall and Garage, they are continually evolving – never missing a beat or a trend. Taking music from all over the world, their routines show how that music makes them feel – and has led them to be successful performers and choreographers across the globe.

They have worked with some of the biggest brands in the world and would be ideal for any number of events – and either performing or creating dance workshops.

Meeting at the prestigious Brit School of Performing Arts & Technology, Ash and Glen quickly became firm friends and started performing ‘streetometry’ – a blend of Street Dance and comedy. It was this act that took them on the 2010 Britain’s Got Talent journey – reaching the finals due to a combination of talent, positivity and humour. They even had a celebrated return to the show a couple years later with their dance group.

They have been celebrity judges on China’s biggest Street Dance TV show – with a viewership of 400 million, performed at the London Olympics and been Olympic torch relay bearers, Ambassadors of the ‘The Diana Award’, presented the Children’s BAFTA’s, achieved a Guinness World Record for the most amount of synchronised dance moves in 30 seconds (130 in total!) and won the ‘Best Choreography’ award at the Great British Pantomime Awards in 2018.
