After you've experienced Weapons of Sound, you'll never look at junk in the same way

Funky and fun, these trained professionals can make music from anything - kitchen sinks, gas pipes, shopping trolleys - and can liven up any 'bash' with their sharp drumming skills.

Whether you want a lively, stylish show, or you're looking for an alternative sound for your ambient background music, Weapons of Sound are perfect for any event.

Travelling the world with their sound, they have played at the opening ceremony of the Commonwealth Games (2002), by Royal appointment at The Queen's Jubilee Party at Buckingham Palace and at a Champions League Final as well as Glastonbury, numerous festivals, corporate and private events.

Weapons of Sound are also experienced workshop leaders and can run team-building events for your guests. Motivational, inspiring and fun – they are a great way to stimulate the senses whilst pressing home the ideas of how we Reduce – Reuse - Recycle.
