JOLLY JUMPERS

A fabulously fun team building event that gets teams working together with some colourful, Christmassy creativity!

Starting out in teams you must first “earn” the paints needed to decorate your jumper by completing a variety of seriously silly team games and challenges.

Once you’ve earned your paints, things get colourful! You need to work together to draw your designs and mix your shades.

You can then raid the craft materials to enhance your designs, and embellish your jumper with glittery pipe cleaners, pom poms, bells and sequins.

This activity is particularly popular for festive team building sessions where guests can create the most stylish (or cringeworthy!) Christmas jumpers...

Each team will choose one team member to be the model to showcase their design to competing teams, and the best design will win the fun team prize at the end of the event!
