

Everlasting Wreath Making

everlasting wreath making...

A modern take on wreath making, where guests make an everlasting wreath using dried flowers and foliage.

Guests make their own everlasting wreath using dried flowers and foliage. Hosted by our expert, guests will be guided through each step of creating their wreath, using dried flowers and materials such as pampas grasses, broom and lagurus 'bunny tails'!

We'll teach the traditional florists' method of wiring their dried flowers onto a sustainable rattan hoop. This can be done as a masterclass, with all guests taking part together, or as a drop in format, where guests join as and when they like. At the end of the activity, guests will have a beautiful modern wreath that can be given as a gift, or proudly hung on the mantlepiece. And, as the flowers are dried, it'll last for many years to come! We also offer a Christmas themed workshop.
