

Junk Funk

Complete with orange vests, brooms, dustbins and dungarees; our 'JUNK FUNK' team burst into the room with their infectious urban rhythms and high-energy antics...

Experience the power of group rhythm and be energised, inspired and motivated to learn to play, listen and react as a group. After our 'Stomping' team have finished their high energy performance, we will quickly transform your guests into a funky junk percussion group, building section upon section of simple yet effective rhythms and movements. Sending your guests on a vibrant sound adventure, we will build both pace and intensity, until the explosive finale - leaving everyone energised and ready for anything!

Splitting into small teams, everyone will have a selection of funky junk props to choose from and rehearse with. Our 'Stomping Masters' are fantastic performers who will teach the group various rhythm games and big hand signals, guiding them along and adding a real buzz to the whole experience. At the end of the session all the teams will perform their new sounds together in a grand finale!

The objectives - To breakdown inhibitions, help inspire and motivate your group, and demonstrate the importance of the individual and of listening to each other.

What is included - Firebird instructors, all equipment and funky junk musical instruments i.e. bins, traffic cones and brooms...etc.
