QUICK FIRE

Quick Fire is a brilliant ice breaker requiring nothing but a team of 3-4 people and our iPads along with your venue space to create a seriously fun energetic activity!

If you're looking for a great way to fill an hour with a fast paced ice breaker to engage a room, our Next Level - Quick Fire game is the perfect choice! It's high energy, highly competitive, full of laughs and seriously interactive...

Imagine your guests frantically scanning codes, answering brand or conference message related questions, along with crazy photo challenges and competing to be the best. All this is possible and an amazing way to do something different at your next event.

Based on a pack of 100 challenge cards, teams are tasked with a huge variety of quiz questions, memory games and interactive puzzles. All of which are split into different levels of difficulty and points. Hidden in some of the challenges are additional surprise photo and video tasks designed to get the players being, shall we say 'creative'!

With all the above, a host to direct and engage the group, plus augmented reality objects to collect too, you are guaranteed a very uplifting and fun packed session... Grab your team's iPad, get your team together and win those gold medals!
