Everyone can sing, and One Voice is the team event that proves it.

Our One Voice event builds on the popularity of TV shows such as X Factor, Britain's Got Talent and The Choir. The human voice is the oldest instrument known to man and the most personal signature we have, with the power to provoke human emotion without any props.

- Our singing workshops are a perfect team building activity and are designed to give your team an experience that might at first be outside their comfort zone.
- Singing is something that everyone can do, even though participants may not think they can at the very beginning!
- Singing together initially creates apprehension, with people outside of their 'comfort zone', but your teams will quickly gain confidence in their abilities by singing together and this will allow them to dramatically surpass their perceived limits.
- The Finale provides a fantastic team 'pay off' when everyone gets to perform together.
- The activity is entertaining and great fun.

We use only world-class professional vocal coaches. All our coaches have many years of experience performing, coaching and directing in the West End, on TV or on tour. They are selected because of their skills in making each event relaxed, fun and a complete success. Our vocal group enters the room and much to the surprise of everyone, performs a song. There is an even bigger surprise when it is announced that everyone in the room is going to sing the same song, in harmony!

In no time at all, our enigmatic vocal coaches split the group into three and go through a short vocal warm-up to blow the dust off those under-used vocal chords. This is not only a good icebreaker, but starts each group with small successes and lays the foundations for the subsequent stages. Lyric sheets are handed out and each group begins to practise and perfect their melody or harmony to the chosen popular song. We have a list of tried and tested songs that are perfect for this event, but we are always open to your own ideas if they are suitable.

Once we have added a little stage direction and glamour to your vocal section, we bring each group together and layer their respective parts to create the ultimate working harmony. You are then ready to perform as 'One Voice' and you will be stunned at how good you sound. With many a raised eyebrow and well deserved pats on the back, you can continue with your day having proved the point that there is no such thing as "I can't".
