

Jolly Jumpers

A fabulously festive team building event that gets teams working together with some colourful Christmas creativity.

Teams must first “earn” their equipment by completing a variety of fun Christmas challenges. For each challenge they complete they will receive one colour of paint or a selection of glittery pipe cleaners, pom poms bells and sequins.

Teams work together to complete their challenges and, once they have earned all their equipment, they each have their own jumper to decorate.

After drawing out their designs, teams then use the paints and materials they have earned to turn their plain jumper into a fabulous festive fashion accessory, or the most cringeworthy Christmas jumper they can think of!

The best (or worst!) design will win the fun team prize at the end of the event!

If preferred, the activity can be run without the challenges, allowing guests to simply decorate their jumpers.
