A mindful and creative painting experience where guests design and paint their own unique masterpiece!

Unlike our guided painting session, this workshop encourages complete creative freedom, allowing guests to paint whatever they choose.

Guests can create portraits, landscapes, pop art, abstract pieces, or simple patterns. They can design their own image, work from a photo on their phone, or browse our selection of templates and ideas for inspiration.

The workshop brief can be tailored to a specific theme if desired—such as company values, self-expression, or even painting a portrait of a colleague—or it can remain open and playful, purely for enjoyment.

With ideas and inspiration suited to all artistic abilities, there is something for everyone, even for those who believe they ‘can’t paint.’ Our experienced instructors are on hand throughout the session to offer guidance, techniques, and helpful shortcuts, ensuring each guest leaves with finished artwork they can feel proud of.

Benefits
