

Rock & Roll Choir

Singing together is a powerful way to boost mood, increase happiness, and reduce stress.

This uplifting team-building workshop takes your group who may feel a little sceptical at first on an exciting musical journey, showing that anything is possible when people come together in harmony. Through fun and engaging vocal and rhythm exercises, participants quickly build confidence and connection, creating a truly unified team. By the end of the session, your group will perform a well-known song as a choir with surprisingly impressive results!

This activity can be delivered as a short icebreaker, conference energiser or expanded into a more in-depth team-building experience.

Notes

Optional extras: Dance choreographer, keyboard player and drummers.

Activity duration: 30 minutes – 1 hour

Guest numbers: 5 – 1000

Our requirements: The activity comes complete with a PA system, if you have a production already on site we require: microphone for facilitator (ideally lapel or headset microphone), HDMI cable to our laptop to play music tracks, Di box for keyboard, /microphone for drums if those are part of the event.
